TTI wins TE Connectivity Global Distributor of the Year

Fifth win in six years in Broadline category

July XX, 2015 – TTI, Inc., a world leading specialized distributor of passive, connector, electromechanical and discrete components, has received the prestigious Global Distributor of the Year Award in the Broadline category from TE Connectivity (TE), a world leader in connectivity. This win marks the fifth time in six years TTI has received this top industry accolade. The award was presented to the TTI executive team during the TE Global Distribution Summit meeting held in March in San Francisco, California by Joan Wainwright, President, Channel and Customer Experience, TE.

Geoff Breed, Vice President of Marketing Europe, TTI said, "We are thrilled to be the winner of TE's Global Distributor of the Year in the broadline category for an amazing fifth time in the past six years, having exceeded our revenue goals across all three global regions. I'm very proud of the achievements of the team here in EMEA, who have once again demonstrated focus and commitment to deliver exceptional levels of customer service. Our long partnership with TE means we are ideally positioned in EMEA to offer both TE's market-leading range of interconnect products backed by our own extensive product expertise. We will continue to strive to remain the best distributor in the region and have already set ourselves the task of winning again next year."

TE Connectivity's collaboration with its distribution partners is driven by its mission to offer the highest levels of products and service to customers. TE is known in the industry for its strategy of rewarding its partners and achieving mutual growth and success.
