Change of the housing

Variant	Old	New
2908729 TTC-6-LCP Changes: • Two tabs on the top have been added. • The shape of the pins has changed slightly.	 A photograph of the old housing component, a metallic plate with a complex shape. It features two circular pins on the left and right sides, each circled in red. A red rectangular box highlights the top edge, which lacks the tabs seen in the new version.	 A photograph of the new housing component, which is similar to the old one but includes two small rectangular tabs on the top edge, highlighted by a red rectangular box. The circular pins on the sides are also circled in red.
