Withdrawal of aluminum electrolytic capacitors for pulse applications

To streamline the product range, the following capacitors for pulse applications are being withdrawn without replacement. For alternative parts, please contact your local TDK sales representatives.

Please note:

- Some ordering codes will not be terminated, but they cannot be ordered for new designs anymore (see list below).
- Delivery of products is subject to availability.
- If other customer-specific contracts have been concluded, other deadlines for last orders and last shipments may apply.
- Previous PTN announcements and their deadlines remain unaffected.
