Product Discontinuation Notice of Certain Chip NTC Thermistors

We really thank you for your continued patronage of TDK products.
This letter informs you that TDK is planning to discontinue the production and sales of the certain Chip NTC Thermistors we have been providing to you.

The market demand for the certain items has declined, which decreases the production efficiency.
Therefore, we decided to discontinue the production and sales of the certain items to improve the production efficiency.

We apologize for any inconvenience due to the discontinuation, but we appreciate your understanding.
